OBSERVATIONS

prodded Russia to mass her troops and promised that Great Britain would help. Meanwhile he represented Great Britain before the world as striving for peace. Russia did mobilize. Germany pierced Grey's duplicity and struck. Whereupon Great Britain declared war "to avenge Belgium."

And then for almost ten years Allied propaganda convinced Allied people that Germany started the war as a bloody means of enthroning herself over all Europe. Nothing is further from the truth—as the lately revealed facts conclusively prove. There is as much blood on British hands as upon those of Germany—probably more.

Many Exceptional New Luxuries and Performance Features —Yet a New Low Price

EXAMINE—DRIVE—COMPARE THIS GREAT NASH SEDAN—AND IT'S EASY TO SEE WHY THE COUNTRY HAS GONE NASH!

This new Nash Special Six Four-Door Sedan calls your attention very forcibly to Nash value.

At its new low price you will find that other manufacturers are asking from $100 to $150 more for cars not as fine in finish, and not nearly as fine in performance.

Here is one of the smartest looking, smartest acting cars of the new season—built as only Nash builds motor cars, performing as only a Nash performs.

The body is a full two inches lower in the fashionable vogue. Window and door ledges, the instrument board and its crown ledge, are all finished in walnut.

The steering wheel is solid walnut, inlaid and crested. There are shirred door pockets..

wherever you look!

And luxury in every mile and minute you drive it. It is quick on the go, always out in front at a traffic start, effortless on hills. There is increased power in its big 7-bearing Valve-in-Head motor. Yet that motor is even more quiet, even smoother. Integral balance of Nash operating parts has accomplished an astounding improvement in already fine motor performance.

And it is the easiest steering, easiest managed car you ever handled. It turns a corner at a mere hint from its steering wheel.

Finally, here is an easier riding motor car. New secret-process alloy-steel springs, just introduced by Nash, achieve supreme travel comfort. Drive this car before you buy your new one. Buy this car and save $100 to $150 of your good money.

TOWNE TALK

By RAS BERRY

Slip Kelsey and Harvel Gutterfelder and Art Finster they went deer hunting and didn't get no deer. The reason was they didn't stay long because the rangers wouldn't let Slip smoke his pipe for fear of setting the world on fire. I wish the rangers would enforce the same kind of a rule on Marcelina st. where the smoke nuisance out of Slip's office has pretty near ruined the two Als—Gouldier and Bond.

Sam Levy and Geo. Peckham they went deer hunting too. They seen a lot of female deers and no males and Sam says he never seen so much dough and come away without a buck.

Ben Lingenfelter ain't been deer hunting this year yet and it looks like the season would close before he will have teeth to chew venison with.

The way these early autumn colts hang on it strikes me that they is a lot of Southern California noses that is choosing to run in nineteen twenty-eight.

I have been reading Carl Sandburg's life of old Abe Lincoln and he tells all the yarns that Abe used to spin down around Illinois and one of the best was when Abe and a circuit judge agreed to trade horses sight unseen and the judge he arrived with a old steel he had bought for a dollar and it was all skin and bones and its legs was spavined and it looked like a ready candidate for the glue factory and just after the judge arrived with the antique equine Abe moseyed around the corner with a saw horse on his shoulder and seeing the mar the judge had brought to the deal Abe says well judge you are the first man that ever beat me in a horse trade.

Somebody one day asked Abe why his wife whose name was Todd spelled it with two d's and Abe says he didn't know but it had always struck him funny that one d was enough for God but the Todds had to have two.

Speaking of Lincoln here is one that Sam Rappaport is telling. Two gentlemen, one named Cohen, the other named Beck run stores next door to each other. Every time Cohen put on a sale Beck put on one and out Cohen's prices a little every time. That made Cohen so sore he went to his lawyer and said I am going to knock Beck for a gross of overalls and the lawyer says don't do it, if you hit him he will sue you and collect and Cohen says well anyway I can call him names and the lawyer says don't do it he can have you arrested for indecent language and sue you for slander and so Cohen didn't know what to do to get even until one day a junk man come along and Cohen says I will pay you five dollars to let me use your horse and wagon for fifteen minutes and the junk man says o. k. and Cohen got on the wagon seat and he drove by Beck's store and Beck was standing out in front and Cohen stopped the horse and looking over at his competitor he says Beck, you demm fool, Beck.

Abe Lincoln used to tell about a Illinois farmer who moved so often that his chickens could tell the signs of another move and would walk up to the house and roll over on their backs and stick their feet up in the air to be tied.

One day a boaster was telling Abe what a big crop of hay he got off his farm and Abe says yes I know all about big crops of hay because when I was a boy we had such a big crop of hay one year that we stacked all we could out doors and then put what was left in the barn.

A writer back in the yeast says they held last year's Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philly, this years in Chi and next years will be in New York and then after that they will hold them every year in that order. But Gee whiz the boys has got to live.

Geo. Neill offers to bet Sam Rappaport one to two on Tunney but Sam says you are too big-hearted Geo.

Julian Eltinge to Head Orpheum Bill

The latest mode and styles for motels will be on display at the Orpheum starting Sunday matinee, Sept. 25. The gorgeousness and completeness of the display is assured for none other than Julian Eltinge, the famous female impersonator, is to be the outstanding headliner, topping a quartette of special feature attractions. In addition to his array of gowns and such the star will offer a repertoire of new songs.

The other headline attractions will be Maddock's "Tricks," featuring Josephine Fontaine, Wally Crisheim and Rotundo Brothers and presenting a collection of pretty and talented girls; Eddie Conrad, the comic strip comedian, with Marion Eddy, in "Who's Who," and Harry Kahne, the world's supreme mentalist, presenting new and greater mental achievements.
